Commitment to Academic Integrity: Oxford librarians and faculty, with the help of the PALs, lead students in an interactive discussion of how fairness and integrity at Oxford are central to the college academic experience and introduce the Honor Code and Honor Council as two of the many ways that students actively own and uphold these ideals.

Pathways to Success: Lauren Braun, Associate Director of the Advising Support Center, and Dr. Catherine Chastain-Elliott, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, present the academic program and strategies and resources to help students excel at Oxford. Students will learn about course registration, academic advising, graduation requirements, continuation to the Atlanta campus, and how to navigate the academic challenges and opportunities of Oxford College.

Making Meaning of Your Journey: Lyn Pace, College Chaplain, and Ami Hernandez, Career Counselor, present this session to help new students learn what it means to be a part of a liberal arts education and how your education at Oxford will help you academically, personally, and professionally. The presenters for this session will briefly talk about how your journey as a student at Oxford is meant to help you develop as a whole person with meaning and purpose.
