As you are preparing for the fall semester, be sure to keep all of the deadlines and guidelines in mind.

To kick things off, campus partners have put together to create some updates to help you get prepared with Oxford. Mark your calendars for these events:

Thursday, July 30

Weekly Update from Oxford Students: This program is for fallatis and their parents, and it answers some common questions and activities that help high school students make the transition to college. The sessions will discuss ways in which these personae can move to help make mental health concerns, but they don't have to, if we have some awareness and alternative mindsets to help them through that process.

Tuesday, August 4
