Oxford is a vibrant and tight-knit community where from the moment you arrive, you feel welcomed from the very start. You will find our faculty and staff, our students, and our community are all working together. You will have the opportunity to meet your assigned advisor during your first day on campus in January. Whether you are an incoming first-year student or a returning upperclassman, your faculty advisor will provide academic advice and serve as one part of your advising network at Oxford College and Emory.

As part of the incoming first-year student checklist, all students are required to complete the First-Year Advising Questionnaire. The information submitted by YOU, the student, will be reviewed with the Advising Support Center and your faculty advisor. You will be required to sign this questionnaire and complete it online. Your faculty advisor will be the instructor of your Discovery Seminar (DS 101Q) course. Faculty advisors are trained to work with all students, regardless of major or minor, and they will serve as one part of your advising network at Oxford College and Emory.

The organic farm is a feature unique to the Oxford campus. Students can be a part of the farm experience by volunteering, through the work study program, classes, and volunteering.

One theme that holds true on the farm is that the more you give, the more you get. Helping out on the farm means more of our harvest ends up in our dining hall, on the plates of local shoppers, and in local pantries for those in need.

One of the best ways to get your hands on the farm is to take classes that participate at the farm. There are many courses in the Environmental Science (Dr. Hage and Dr. Martin), Anthropology (Dr. Ham), Sociology (Dr. Shannon), and Discovery Seminars and a range of classes in other disciplines that regularly take advantage of the farm, including Anthropology (Dr. Herrn), Sociology (Dr. Shannon), and Environmental Science (Dr. Hage and Dr. Martin).

One theme that holds true on the farm is that the more you give, the more you get. Helping out on the farm means more of our harvest ends up in our dining hall, on the plates of local shoppers, and in local pantries for those in need.

Check out our Facebook page and Instagram to see what’s happening on the farm!

What’s Next?

Advising Questionnaire: As part of the incoming first-year student checklist, all students are required to complete the First-Year Advising Questionnaire. The information submitted by YOU, the student, will be reviewed with the Advising Support Center and your faculty advisor. You will be required to sign this questionnaire and complete it online. Your faculty advisor will be the instructor of your Discovery Seminar (DS 101Q) course. Faculty advisors are trained to work with all students, regardless of major or minor, and they will serve as one part of your advising network at Oxford College and Emory.

During your time at Oxford, your faculty advisor is trained to guide you through the general education program, offer advice and suggestions for academic success, and assist with any questions you have. The information you provide in the questionnaire will help your advisor prepare to better assist you as you work together. You will have the opportunity to meet your assigned advisor during your New Student Orientation in January.

The latest deadline to submit your questionnaire is October 15. Please answer ALL questions and be honest with your answers. The information you provide will help us to better understand your needs and interests.

Final High School Transcript: Please be sure your high school submits your final transcript to the Office of Admission when it’s available. The advantage of having your final transcript sent electronically is that you will be able to receive your official transcript before it has been reviewed. Remember, official transcripts must be submitted by your school, not by you as the student.

Install Recommended Software: Be sure to install Microsoft Office (including Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook), Adobe Acrobat Reader, and any other required software. This will ensure that you are able to access the general education program, classes, and support all of your endeavors here. The information you provide in the questionnaire will help your advisor prepare to better assist you as you work together. You will have the opportunity to meet your assigned advisor during your New Student Orientation in January.

The latest deadline to submit your questionnaire is October 15. Please answer ALL questions and be honest with your answers.

Virtual Event: Be sure to install Microsoft Office (including Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook), Adobe Acrobat Reader, and any other required software. This will ensure that you are able to access the general education program, classes, and support all of your endeavors here. The information you provide in the questionnaire will help your advisor prepare to better assist you as you work together. You will have the opportunity to meet your assigned advisor during your New Student Orientation in January.

The latest deadline to submit your questionnaire is October 15. Please answer ALL questions and be honest with your answers.

If you have any questions, please contact our Office of Admission at 122 Few Circle, Oxford, GA 30054-1418 or email us at oxadmission@emory.edu.

Welcome to Oxford College Office of Enrollment Services 800.723.8328