Can you believe it is almost July? Before you know it, your student will be kicking off their time as an Emory Eagle!

In this Eagle Update, we are excited to provide you with important deadlines and critical information in preparation for the fall semester. We've put together another Eagle Update for you and your family that's loaded with important information to ensure your student's success at Emory University. This month, we'll be focusing on the emory essentials oxford edition canvas course, providing an overview of key dates and events, and offering resources for parents and families.

Here's what you need to know...

- Registration: Registration for the fall semester is around the corner! In this session, the Advising Support Center will provide important information about class registration, including how to choose courses and navigate the registration process. It's important to submit your preferences for course selection by the deadline to ensure the availability of your top choices.

- Requests for Approval of Transfer and Test Credit/Exemption Form: If you have pursued college coursework at an accredited college/university and/or have received AP/IB or other test credits for your coursework, you can email the Transfer Credit Approval and course, you can email tor veronica.roman@emory.edu to request approval of your credits. Please make sure to include all necessary documentation with your request.

- First-Year Writing: Curious about your choices? Register for one or both of our Discovery Seminar courses for the fall! These courses are designed to provide an introduction to various academic disciplines and to help you develop critical thinking and research skills. The Discovery Seminar (DS) is a requirement for all first-year students and is a unique opportunity to explore different fields of study.

- Oxford College Office of Enrollment Services: The Oxford College Office of Enrollment Services is here to help you with any questions you may have about the enrollment process. You can visit the office in person or contact them via email at oxfordorientation@emory.edu.
