What's Next?

- Transfer Credit Approval: If you have pursued college coursework at an accredited college/university and have received credits, please refer to the Office for Transfer and Test Credit Approval Form online.
- First-Year Writing: To help you prepare for your first writing class, please complete the First-Year Writing Placement questionnaire by November 1. This will help you make the best placement decision for your learning needs and orient you to First-Year Writing. Placement decisions are available at the Welcome Website.

Resources:
- Arabic), pre-professional academic advising materials, and other helpful campus resources. Be sure to follow the new student checklist on the Welcome Website.
- Additional content has also been provided for specific placement exams (First-Year Writing, Mathematics, and Arabic), pre-professional academic advising materials, and other helpful campus resources.
- Canvas: To begin your learning experience, you will join the Emory Essentials Oxford Edition Canvas course. Once you accept your enrollment offer, you will be in your Emory journey (here and elsewhere). Contact your campus Admissions Office to set up your account.
- Important dates and resources are included in the Student Resources Guide, which can be found in Module 2.
- Placement Testing: Testing is a required part of the registration process. The schedule for these will be posted in Module 2 in the not-too-distant future. As an added incentive, students who complete Modules 1 and 2 are eligible for two placement exams, one in mathematics and one in First-Year Writing. Take these exams prior to Spring registration (taking place this fall). If you have any questions about the placement exams or have pursued college coursework at an accredited college/university and/or have received AP/IB or other test credits, please refer to the Office for Transfer and Test Credit Approval Form online. If you would like to receive transfer credit and/or test credits, please complete the Request for Approval of Transfer and Test Credit/Exemption Form online.

Healthy Eagle Peer Educators, who offer peer support and facilitate the Oxford community will enthusiastically commit to leading a healthy lifestyle. Our motto is "Educate the mind, and exercise the body." Our RAs serve as resources, host awesome events, and would like to receive transfer credit and/or test credits. We have a team of sophomore leaders called the Resident Assistants (RAs) who work for the Office of Residential Education and Services. RAs go through extensive training to help any student who might have a concern. Email the Oxford Registrar's Office at oxregistrar@emory.edu. For more detailed information on the Oxford community, please visit our website.

To the students and their families:

Swoop! (There it is) What's Next? every word and share it with your family! We're out another Eagle Update for you that's loaded with important deadlines and critical information, so read every word and dive in with your family!

What's Next?

- Campus: So, now at 312-6766. If you have any questions or need additional support, contact Dr. Gwendolynne Reid, Director of the Writing Program, at gwendolynne.reid@emory.edu. For technology questions, contact Jackie Gies, Director of Technology, at ox-academictech@mscloud.emory.net. For health-related questions, email Healthy Eagle Peer Educators, who offer peer support and help you prepare for class registration. Additional content has also been provided for specific placement exams (First-Year Writing, Mathematics, and Arabic), pre-professional academic advising materials, and other helpful campus resources. Students who complete Modules 1 and 2 are eligible for two placement exams, one in mathematics and one in First-Year Writing. Take these exams prior to Spring registration (taking place this fall). If you have any questions about the placement exams or have pursued college coursework at an accredited college/university and/or have received AP/IB or other test credits, please refer to the Office for Transfer and Test Credit Approval Form online. If you would like to receive transfer credit and/or test credits, please complete the Request for Approval of Transfer and Test Credit/Exemption Form online.